

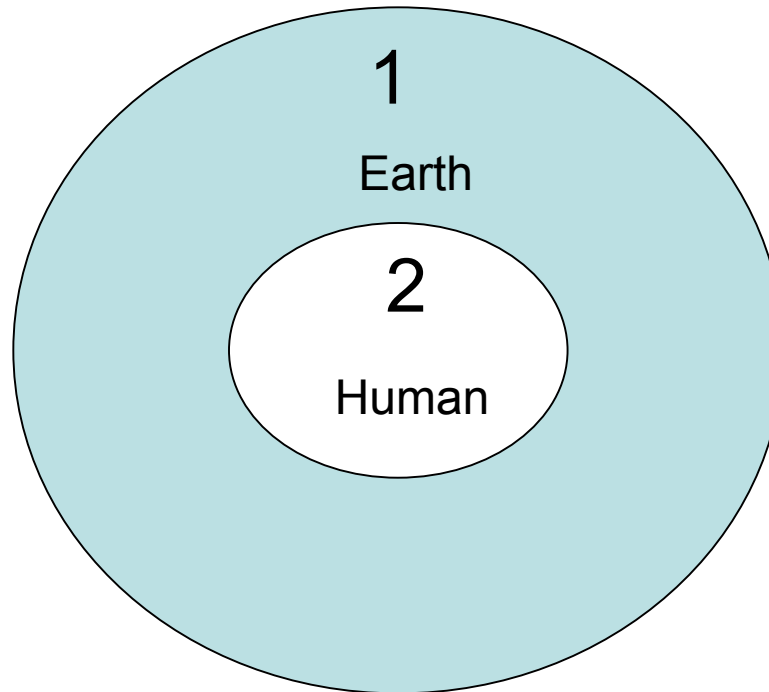

Figure 1: Two economies

1. Life. Natural constraints provide freedom for parts to develop and enhance the welfare of the community.
2. Mechanism. Determined, unchanging. Each part focused on its own welfare. Not a community. Probably doesn't exist in nature.